serve the Lozo. Some of them went so far as to maintain that all marriage bonds were dis-solved. One very respectable lady, whose huband belonged to the association, and who had herself become partially infected by the mania was restored to her right mind in a rather singu far manner. Two or three of the unmarried as terhood paid her a visit one day, and almost broke her heart by informing her that her hus band was not her husband-at least, that he would not be her husband any langer. This bold invasion of her conjugal rights dissipated the defusion which had begun to steal over

It happened, however, in process of time, that two of their most zealous leaders, who inveighed the most strongly against matrimony, actual ly married members of the association. On ne occasion one of them, after speaking very decidedly against marriage, although he himself had once been married, was seen to give his arm tures," by Wm. L. Stone, Esq. of New York. to a young lady, on leaving the meeting, and es cort her home. A complaint was made against him at the next meeting, and he was brought to the confessional, and obtained forgiveness, if not morning June 19, in the 73d year of his age. absolution, by an apology. He, nevertheless, married the woman afterward.

They did not believe in a final day of judgment, but maintained that mankind were judged for their deeds every day. At one of these meetings when this tenet was the object of their devotional meditations, a lady orator become apparently almost frantic. She screamed wild ly-tor both sexes 'prophesied,' and their meet. ings were sometimes very noisy,—and danced back and forth across the room, declaring, This is the judgment seat of Christ-the Judge is now on the throne, and he is judging every one

They were also Perfectionists. On one oc. casion, one of the perfect ladies proclaimed that she was even standing on the sea of glass, and holding converse with Gon. She declared the she held sweet communion with him daily; con versing with him face to face.' At another meet ing one of the male members declared that he had not had a single temptation for ten years -dwelling much upon his own perfection, the strength of his faith, &c. At the next convo cation, however, he was observed to sit silent and moody in the back part of the room. To ward the close of the evening he rose, and, with a heavy heart, announced that he had on that very evening been grievously tempted. From the moment he entered the apartment, he said, he had wished them all to fall down and worwept, confessed his fault, and obtained rethe bodies of the sick, in obedience, as they supposed to and J. J. Turner, Secret tries. Upon the cill peril to all who desire to perpetuate our institution injunction of the Apostle James; forgetting, or not of the rol, is appeared that of the ring five tions, animated by the spirit in which they were knowing that that injunction was prescribed only for member, nominated by the various Wards and created, zealously to co-operate with us, in an observance during the Apostolic age. The facts and Election Districts, of the above cities and countries are contributed by the various wards and created, zealously to co-operate with us, in an observance during the Apostolic age. The facts and Election Districts, of the above cities and countries are contributed by the various wards and created, zealously to co-operate with us, in an observance during the Apostolic age. circumstances attending one of these cases are well ty, eighty-seven were in attendance, whereup precated.

known to the writer, and are withelese peculiar that the on, on motion, the Convention adjourned to Resolve. particulars will be briefly stated; especially as they serve o illustrate the strength with which the delusion had already fastened upon the minds of the membors. Among the number, a friend of the writer, and bors. Among the number, a friend of the writer, and opinion amongst the members present, John S. every excellent man, who is no doubt, his error to the contrary notwithstanding, now rejoicing in the king.

Sell out, Eag., offered the following resolution, ry notwithstanding, now rejoicing in the kinglong time sick, and apparent. which was unanimously adopted: ly nigh unto death. While thus prostrate upon his Resolved. That this Convention recommend led, receiving the affectionate attentions of his wife, ISAAC McKIM and BENJAMIN C. HOW. Mr.—one day told the latter that the Leaphid prom. ARD, to the consideration of the Democratic sed to raise her husband from his sickness, in answer to Vot rs of the Fourth Congressional District, as to serve the Loan with her whole heart all the days of co "romising principles; and that we pledge her life, and join with him in prayer, it should be done, our lives individually and collectively, to use and her husband should be restored to health. The lidy our zealous exertions to promote their election her cares, and to him alone—adding, in enswer to his umph of the Democratic Republican measures importunities, like a woman of good sense, as she is, the en it make whether I comply with you request or not Mr.—then left her, and informed the sick man that it was owing to his uife's obstinacy that he was not poor man, debilitated in body and mind by selling his wife to his bedside, with tears in his eyes. ing of the leaders of the sect around his bed, he was sional District. ointed with oil, with solemn religious services. The never again to robust health. His recovery was pro-claimed as a miracle, and for a long time, to the know-Mayor of the city of Annapolis, for his kind ofclaimed as a miracle, and for a long time, to the know-ledge of the writer, believed to be one by the invalid himself. It happened, however, that unmediately after the anointing, Mr.—detlared that he alone must an as nurse and physician. The first medicine he administered was a quantity of eggs and cider, which operated as a powerful emetic, and doubtless gave a favourable turn to the disorder. Another case of miracle, performed in the same way, was also proclaimed some time afterwards; but this was only completed by the active trious Chief Magistrate will soon expire, before treatment of a skilful physician, who informs the writer which period it will become the duty of the that he was called in just in season, through Provi. people of the United States, to elect his succes dence, to rescue the patient from the grave. Still it is sor; And whereze, in the opinion of this Convery possible that temporary relief was in both cases wention, the administration of the present instributable to the influence of a strong imagination, impressed with the assurance of recovery. Such was, to the great and cardinal principles of the conundoubtedly, the fact in regard to the pretended mira led for by Mr. Hume, as having peen per formed at the tomb of Thomas a Becket, and elsewhere Those said to have been performed in Europe some years since, when the French were mnning wild on the rabject of animal magnetism, were occasion operation of the same principle. So, also, in the case of the young lady, Miss Campbell, said to have been miraculously healed by Edward Irving; to which may be added, the pretended miracles of Prince II henlot ods and thousands of instances might b cited in which diseases, probably in the series if a great measure imaginary, have been alleviated or dispelled by working upon the imagination. But, 4t the same onnelly wall attented came might be cited in which es, and even death, have been superinduced by the same means.

(To be continued)

Maryland Agazette.

ANAPOLIS: Thursday, August 6, 1835.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,

ANNAPOLIS, July 27, 1835. There will be a meeting of the Executive Council, on Monday, the 17th of August next.

THOS. CULBRETH, Clerk.

BARZILLAI MARRIOTT, Esq. is a Canidate to represent Anne-Arundel county in the next General Assembly, and will be warmly MANY VOTERS. supported by

The Reader is referred to the first page of this day's paper for the commencement of an interesting account of "Matthias and his Impos-

The celebrated WILLIAM CORRETT, departed this life at C:ifford's Inn, London, on Friday

The following Gentlemen were, on Monday last, elected Directors for the Farmers' Bank of Maryland for the ensuing year:

For Annapolis and Anne-Arundel County. Henry Maynadier, Somorville Pinkney, Alexnder Randall, William S. Green, Thomas S. Mexander, Brice J. Worthington.

Joseph Harris, St. Mary's county. Nicholas Stonestreet, Charles county. Thomas H. Wilkinson, Calvert county. Charles J. Kilgour, Montgomery county. William S. McPherson, Frederick county. Frishy Tilghman, Washington county, William McMahon, Allegany county. Samuel Moale, Baltimore county. Henry D rsey, Harford county. Directors for the Branch Bank at Frederick. Town.

William Ross, John Tyler, George Baltzell, William Ross, John Tyler, George Baltzell, nume Republicanism to yield to the opinions vived in the coming contest, in the response of the property vived in the coming contest, in that the coming contest, in the property vived in the coming contest, in that the coming contest, in the coming contest, in that the coming contest, in the coming contest,

Jackson Republican Congressional

Pursuant to appointment, the Delegates from the cities of Bultimore and Annapolis, and the county of Anne Arundel, met in the Room of the House of Delegates, on Siturday, the 1st inst., at 12 o'clock, when the Convention was organized by the choice of JOHN NELSON, Esq., of the city of Baltimore, as President, John S. Sellman, Esq., of prience teaches us, dangerous to the public They also believed in their power, through the prayer Anne Arundel country, as first Vice President, prace, and subversive of the just control design of faith, to heal the rick, as by miracle; and, in several. Dr. Edward Sparks, of the city of Annapolis, et to be secured by the Constitution to the pecases, one of the rick in challenge as they more all the property of the sisk in challenge as they more all the property of the sisk in challenge as they more all the property of the sisk in challenge as they more all the sisk in the sisk in challenge as they more all the sisk in the sisk meet again at 1 o'clock.

The Convention re-assembled at the hour a-bove designated, when, after an interchange of

He added, that if she would promise him me of high and elevated characters, and unreplied that she would make no promises to man upon to the next Congress of the United States, as gies to few if to any objects of foreign policy, such a subject—that it was to her Gop she went with the best means of ensuring the success and trie which he has not successfully achieved.

portunities. Ike a word as or government of this convention communicate to testion, 'If, as you say, the Load has promised this ing officers of this Convention communicate to reat work in answer to your prayers, what difference lead to McKim and Benjamin C. Howard, the ing officers of this Convention communicate to recurrence should be had by our political agents, nominations now made, and respectfully re- the great conservative principle of our institu quest their acceptance thereof.

the following resolution:-

Resolved, That a committee of three person ured her not to be so hard-hearted and cruel as thus be appointed by the chair to report resolutions creist in preventing his recovery! At length, how, expressive of the views of this Convention, and By a small meet. | an address to the voters of the fourth Congresand Franklin, were appointed the committee. On motion, it was ordered, That the thank ter of the Assembly Rooms for the use of this Convention. The committee to whom the subject was re ferred, reported the following resolutions and address, which having been read and considered were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, The term of service of our illus trious Chief Magistrate will soon expire, before Therefore, be it

Resolved, As the sense of this Convention that the support of the American People should e given to no candidate for the Presidency or Vice Presidency of the United States, who is not pledged to carry out the principles which have characterized General Jackson's adminis

Resolved. That of these principles we hold he following to be leading, essential, and fun damental:

An uncompromising hostility to the renewal upon any terms, of the charter of the presen Bank of the United States; and an inflexible op position to the creation by the Federal Govern ment of any other great monied institution.

A determined resistance to all appropriation declaively national in their character, with the states.

A moderate taxiff, adequate to the purp of revenue, and which shall leave equally and unshackled, all branches of the national industry.

The controling influence of public opinion to which, when deliberately formed and clearl ascertained, all measures of public policy should subordinate and conformed.

Unconditional obedience of the Representa ive to the instructions of the constituent body, when fully and fairly indicative of the public will, of which the law should always be but the expressions. An amendment of the Constitution of the U. nited States, such as will secure to the people! the power of electing their Cha the action of the House any event, in every such election.

cautious torbearance by the Government of the United States, in the exercise of all powers not the mass; and by the avowed design, to take the cided advocates; and under this conviction we and personal advancement.

will give to them our cordial support, for the first and second offices within the gift of the candidates of the great national convention will be sup-American people.

Reported, I that in the issue of the approachpaged to pursue, by a decident majority of the country ing Presidential contest, we believe to be bound. They have been selected for their distinguished preup our most cherished principles, to the vindication of which, all who profess to belong to the Republican party, should devote their best
the Republican party, should devote their best
the present illustrious head of the rovernment. Disenergies; and as the individual preferences of energies; and as the individual preferences of traction and division are the weapon and means to each cannot, in he nature of things, be gratified or which our adversaries look for our defeat—and if the ed, that it is the duty of all, in the spirit of genuine Republicanism, to yield to the opinions of Convention, at Battimore; and to ante-

of our fellow citizens. Resolved. That we sincerely and deeply desident of the United States, by the primary electors, and of devolving the ultimate election of action on their part, and a sacrifice of all persons branches of Congress; an expedient, as past ex-Resolved, That as American citizens, we ar proud of the high eminence to which, as a as tion, our dest ny has conducted us: to a condiunsur ass. . resp. ctability and consideration a. the cause we support, by concert of movement, unanibroad. More especially have we reason of congratulation in the present auspicious state of ence, let us sustain the present ascendency, which proour relations with France, mainly attributable as we believe it to be, to the characteristic firm ness manifested by the President of the United States, who, acting upon the high principle, early avowed by him of "asking from foreign na ting to nothing that is wrong," has in the course of his brilliant administration, directed his ener-

Resolved, That to give permanence to the On motion, it was ordered, That the presid- blessings enjoyed by us, as a nation, a constant to public opinion, the power of the people being Mr. Frick, of the city of Baltimore offered of that power, should on their part remember tnat "eternal vigilance is the price of public li

The representatives of the friends of the Administration of the General Government from the District composed of Baltimore and Annapolis cities, and the county of Anne-Arundel, in Which being adopted, Messrs. Frick, Crabb Convention assembled at Annapolis to select CALVERT, Jr. Esq. as Chairman, and Judson and nominate suitable candidates for their supwith harmony and unanimity accomplished the Esq. the following resolutions were submitted bold, enterprising and unprincipled white purpose of their convention, and having in the oregoing resolutions expressed the comions and principles under which they profess to act, with confidence in the propriety of their selection and a just reliance on the stability and consis the people of their district in sustaining them, they confidently submit their nomina

> Looking to these principles, for which the party throughout the union, with whom they claim alliance, have maintained a long and arluous, if not a doubtful struggle, as essentially nterweven with the best interests of the pe ple, and involving in their success, the perpetu-ity of our institutions, they have discarded all ersonal considerations and claims, in agreeing upon the two candidates, upon whom they exect to unite and concentrate the support of upon all their friends to sustain them in their > ent array throughout the country against it, must have taught us, that, though the victory has been won, the enemy is still in the field, do bating every inch of the ground we occupy. Even the signal success of all the leading measures of the present administration has not re axed the desperate exertions of its opponenta ring the elements of political strife, participate, while they prepare the coming storm, which is to highten the hopes of selfgovernment in the people, and restore the reign of aristocracy and monopoly.

d revolution is their unchangeable motto; and all the medley of clans and parties, and opposing factions, are gathering for the avowed purpose of a final effort to subvert the present policy, or embarrass the future administration of the government by the chosen agents of the people.

The public prints which sustain this opposition, teem with speculations upon the various divisions of the electoral vote, without regard to the principles involved in the contest; pointing to sectional candidates, whose support may effect a breach in the great mass that has so Magistrate, triumphantly sustained and vindicated the carwithout the intervention of agents of any kind, dinal principles of our free government. Old and which shall more especially dispense with animosities and jealousies are still to be revivof Representatives, in ed and nourished-every topic that can appeal to the cupidity of individuals, and may excite A jealous and sacred regard to the rights of sectional and local divisions, is to be pressectional ates, as reserved by the great charter of into the service of an opposition who have alour Union, to them and to the people; and a ways supported combinations and monopolies of election of Chief Magistrate from the people clearly delegated to it by the Constitution.

Resolved, That of the foregoing principles, we believe Martin Van Buren, of New York, and sustain the selfish and factious purpose of maken the selfish Richard M. Johnson, of Kentucky, to be the de- ing its administration subservient to private ends ported in their principles, and the measures they are Rem'red, That in the issue of the approach. pledged to pursue, by a decided majority of the country the present illustrious head of the government. Dis memorable scenes and intrigues of 1824 can but be re-vived in the coming contest, in that revival and the they have with so much difficulty established; upon a fickle abandonment by them of friends who have stood plore the efforts now making by our political by their cause in the hour of need and trial, that these apponents, to distract and divide public opinion, malcontents openly calculate to subvert the existing powith the undisguised and avowed purpose of de-lier of Government. This attempt "to divide and conquer" feating the choice of a President and Vice Pre-must be met with firmness and unanimity on the part of the friends of the existing administration; by a concert of those high functionaries upon the respective preferences and prejudices to the common cause of our er by one common affection and interest, and by an unity of opinion and principle throughout the unio their vigilant and undivided efforts to uphold and sustain sidious designs of scheming politicians to sever this devotion and sacrifice on the part of the people; as a pormity of sentiment, and a sacrifice of all personal prefer. claims, the "safety and happiness of the people, is the

On motion, it was ordered. That the preceedings of this Convention, be signed by the President, Vice Presidents and Secretaries, and published in the Jackson

When, after a vote of thanks to the officers for the manner in which they had discharged their duties, the convention adjourned.

JOHN NELSON, President. JOHN S. SELLMAN, Vice Presidents. EDWARD SPARER, Jonathan Pinkney, } Secretaries.

JACKSON REPUBLICAN CONVEN.

TION, Prince-George's County, Md.
On Saturday the 1st of August inst. the day ppointed for the meeting of the Convention, he Delegates from the several Election Districts of the county assembled at the Court-House in Upper Marlboro', when the Conven tion was organised by the appointment of GEO: W. Mcknew, as Secretary.

by him, and unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That Dr. Benjamin Day, The nas B. Gwynn, Cæsar A. Gantt, and Walter W. W. Bowie, Esqrs. be and they are hereby nomi nated and recommended to the Republican and Independent Voters of Prince-George's county, as suitable persons to represent said county in the next General Assembly of Maryland—and members of this Convention do hereby pledge themselves to use all fair and honours ble means in their power to effect the election of the same.

2. Resolved, That the members of this Convention will most cordially unite with the Independent and Republican Voters throughout this Congressional District, to promote and secure the re-election of our late worthy and efficient representative, the Hon'ble. John T. Stoddert.

3. Resolved, That the efforts which are not manifestly in progress on the part of the lead-ing opponents of the present Administration of the General Government to prevent the election by the people of their next Chief Magistrate, town of Livingston, where similar proceeding deserve, and should receive from every true reby the people of their next Chief Magistrate, deserve, and should receive from every true relaxed the desperate exertions of its opponenta, publican, the most unquasited condemnation, The panic makers and their political fanatics and that it becomes all who are for preserving are still abroad; and in the haloyen times of tranquility and prosperity hose who are stirpublican, the most unqualified condemnation:

and true

ing Administration of the General G home, and to establish and perpetuate its ch racter for respectability abroad, and it is ource of the most heartfelt pleasure to the Convention to perceive that the American pole are becoming so generally impressed w the truth of these matters

5. Resolved, That the Secretary of this C vention shall immediately notify the gentler hereinbefore nominated as Candidates for General Assembly, of their appointment, in either or any of them shall decline to are, Chairman of this Convention is here, req ed and empowered, forthwith to call a need of the members to supply such vancy er

6. Resolved, That the proedings of Convention be signed by the Chairman and cretary, and published in the Globe, Maryl Gazette, Baltimoro Roublican, and Marib

Bulletin.
On motion of Zadok W. McKnew, Exwas Resolved, That the thanks of this Coar tion be tendered to the Chairman and Secr ry for the satisfactory manner in which t have discharged their respective duties. And on motion of T. Clements Esq the O vention adjourned.

GEO. CALVERT, r. Chairman JUDSON W. McKNEW, Seo'y.

From the Clinton (Mighi HORRIBLE CONSPIRACY. Since the commencement of our editorial bours we have not been thrust upon the per mance of a duty so melancholy, as that ta w we are called at the present time. A few days anterior to the 4th of July, ous circumstances excited some suspicion in minds of a few respectable itizens of Had minds of a few respectable ettizens of Hace county, in the neighbourhood of Beattie's D of an insurrection among the slaves of that thement being about to occur Several shaves at different times overheard, whilst gaged in secret conversation relative to the posed plot. A scrutiny, such as the crisis seed to demand, was forthwith instituted, w led to the development of facts of the startling and extraordinary character. It very soon ascertained, in the progress examination which ensued, that two individ by name Cotton and Saunders, both of t steam doctors by profession, were promine concerned in this nefarious scheme. these individuals were immediately appre

ed. A large meeting of the citizens of M son county was held, to deliberate upon the mentous crisis which had arisen, at which was unanimously resolved that a committee investigation should be immediately organi in the name and upon the responsibility of whole body of the citizens, to use all neces means for ferreting out this nefarious plot, bringing the offenders to speedy justice. committee, thus organized, composed of thir of the most respectable citizens of the conmen of elevated standing in the community moral worth, integrity, and discretion, proc ed, as soon as possible, to the task assigned the racy having been formed were perfectly ou sive, and that the guilt of Cotton and Saun was placed beyond doubt, with but little ordered them to a public execution, by han which took place in the town of Livingston Saturday the fourth day of July.

Before Cotton was hung, he made rece confessions of his guilt, both privately and licly, in presence of an immense multitude furnished a detail of the plan of operation greed on, and a list of the prominent contors. It seems from Cotton's confession, v was, as to the most essential particulars, re ed to writing previous to his deatle, and suk ed by him in presence of numorous with that he was an accomplice of the celebr MURRELL; and he in fact acknowledged the had been a member of two grand council association with Murrell hiraself. The pre embraced the whole slave region from M embraced the whole slave region from land to Louisiana, and contemplated the destruction of the white population of all Slave States, and the absolute conquest and minion of the country. A large nun are concerned in the scheme, scattered over country, along the whole line of contemp perations, who have succeeded in engagin id of such among the negro population as, their peculiar characteristics, were regard best suited to such an enterprise—the bold. sagacious, the desperate. Arms and ammu have been procured, and deposited in various cret places, and all other arrangements els which were deemed essential to the adspub incipient operations.

The publication of the Murrell pample inderstood to have precipitated the attempt execution of the plot, and to have induced lier hostile movements, by several months, was originally contemplated. So far as we h been informed, the scheme of operations up on was as follows: On the night of the four their party, now emphatically and earnestly call upon all their friends to sustain them in their nomination.

The past political history of our party, and decided approbation.

The past political history of our party, and decided approbation. ndiscriminately butchered, All the and tion and arms of the town were to be seiz and the whole force of the insurgents, as rai complished, it was expected the whole hady the white population would be overcome w pania, and be constrained to fly from the set of terrory and crery black in the county, also

This ble befor Lendertee was then to march upon our mean of Clinton, burning, sacking, and layof Clinton could the destruction of Clinton could to reach the time the destruction of Clinton could to reach that that but ben several thousand. A cither by march was then to be made to the me march was then to be made to the of Claiborne along the skirts of Warren, victims of the whole country upon the river bank was ly possible that and inundated with the blood of that some market, and children. plated by those who have witnessed much to allow out and investigation which has taken place upon out and investigation county. tect in Madison county.

much age
for assured by a gentleman who was in lettle she friends of friends of friends of
friends of
state of g state of interest the community there. An state of interest excitement certainly exists among the white population; but the excitement is of interest and profound character which discolliery, that the of arestigation occupy a room withdrawn Thursday the multitude, and the utmost calmness and was, with was, with the whole proceedings.

The avertigations which take place, as the boys were a cas a are brought before them for consi- Reed, Es hoa ere conducted in a manner that would vious to an decredit to the most dignified judicial bodies o and of the country. Every opportunity is colliery. saled to the persons inculpated of cro-s-x- Lusterby ming witnesses, introducing testimony in ly alludo defence, and explaining all doubtful points They w varous roluntary statements, which the afterwar chames could desire; and, what is truly the with enble, not a word of unkindness is permit- inquest v braddressed to the culprit on trial, and person propounded to any of the witnesses sairely in accordance with truth and jus-We are told that five white men, alto- dwelling de, have been hung in Livingston. Ruel buildings their and who, it was said, was the individual deto lead on the army of incendiaries a- feet in the this county had flod in dismay, but was The rem coded in Vickburg, carried back to Liv. formed, and tried and executed on yesterday, of Mr. I renthree and four o'clock. The number rangeme

Vesers just informed that Hunter, one of the chiefs h conspirecy, has been apprehended near Benton, The job

regres executed we have not heard precise ares in addition to those already made. immittee, similar to the one in Madison, in ession for several days in Clinton. Various maid white men, from different parts of the county, haben irrested, brought before them and discharged. sel across have also been hauled up, but, nothing ing been elicited which authorized punishment, they is at at liberty.

Transcriptrust that our countrymen will be or thetthreegleut the State; for indeed we do foel were ho there is danger abroad. Timely procautions will of build sen our perfect sufety, and utterly defeat this abom. new lim project; but inaction and apathy may be pro. Patriot. tie of consequences which we do not dare to name.

EXTLOSION OF A COAL MINE.

One Hundred Lives Lost. h amouncing the dreadful catastrophe in 3d day Sm's Field in the last Courant it was not 9 o'clo and that a still more awful occurrence in purpose as the still more destructive to human life, princes is neighbourhood and one which it is feared have to be recorded this week. Yester. (Thursday) about 1 past 2 o'clock in the on, one of those dreadful explosions which beca so lamentably frequent in mining dishis bok place at one of Mr. Russel's collieat Wallsend, known by the name of the hit or Russel's old Willsend, by which is fared 25 men and 75 to s have lost their

The number of workpeople employed in this try is about 220. The howers commence geting the coal, it is left to be brought to the of the shaft by the younger men and bring the day, which is the reason why so a proportion of boys were in the pit when necessary took place. As every individual MAR ion remains there still, it is not known, nor. all have probably perished, is it likely to be by what means it was occasioned accidents have generally been produced incuriously removing the gauze from the Hughe by lamps, and it is supposed in this instance has originated in the same way, though eve recution was taken to prevent its removal-tolliery was viewed in the morning by Mr. hises and his son, under-viewers, and it was tem considered perfectly safe and secure in respect, there not being the least indicaand my escape of gas, and at the time of a there were four overmen and defor down who had been accustomed to work the pits for upwards of 30 years. These are me its or opwards of 30 years. These are me its sufferers.

The catastrophe was mide known to the ince by a considerable report, which they at of as being like an carthquike, accompaly a rushing of choke damp to the mouth its shaft, bringing up with it some of the shaft, bringing up with it some of the shaft clothes, and other light articles from those. There are two other shafts considerables with the collision of the shaft considerables. and with this colliery, in one of which two wre at work; who say they felt a slight at eithe time, and soon after a quantity of the time. They happily escaped by being an immediately. In the thing half no wast work. On the alarm being given, in the hope has able to ave and bring up some of their minn. After descending to the lighton, but it is attenting to jet into the works, astanty found themselves being suffocated and first they had the greatest difficulty for the strong has the greatest difficulty. wife this colliery, in one of which two judgmen merated, but suppose it to amount to some well fro ings as tor. M have rience in rience e perpendi zontally difficulti case, eq

The I

T'HA

Tick